

Instructions:

- 1. Download the file and print. If you'd prefer to build your timeline electronically you can make your own template in one of the popular spreadsheet programs or Google sheets.
- 2. Write the times along the top, and the suspect's names down the left hand side.
- 3. As you learn where each person was at specified times, you can shade in the area and write the details of their location on the sheet.

Example:

From 9:00 to 9:30, John and Mary were in the kitchen together. All other times each of the suspects were alone somewhere or unaccounted for.
